

Scam: “Guaranteed Pass” Driving School Scams

What is the Scam?

A driving school or individual offers a “guaranteed pass” on a drive test, which is a scam because legitimate schools cannot guarantee a passing score due to strict state safety standards. This can include charging illegal fees for guaranteed results, manipulating or shortening the required test duration, and using outside “coordinators” to help with test answers or appointments.

The Risk

- Fraud and Criminal Charges: Paying for a guaranteed passing score, allowing someone else to answer for you, or paying someone to take the test for you is illegal and can lead to criminal charges.
- False Records: Fraudulent testers may complete a test in two to four minutes (instead of the required minimum duration, e.g., 15 minutes) and enter false data into the state’s system.
- Wasting Money: DMV appointments are free, and paying anyone to secure an appointment is illegal and considered fraud.

How to Protect Yourself

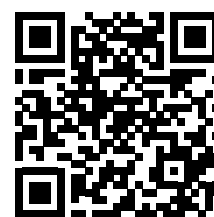

- Ensure you enroll with an official driving school.
- Never pay a driving school for guaranteed test results.
- State law requires drive tests to meet a minimum duration (e.g., 15 minutes); report it immediately if you observe a manipulated or shortened test.
- Do not use or pay outside “coordinators” to schedule appointments or help you with test answers.
- DMV appointments are free, so do not pay anyone to secure one.
