Personalized license plate application must be filled out in its entirety and signed by the applicant. Incomplete or unsigned applications will not be processed.

Instructions

Step #1 – Fill in all vehicle owner name(s) and phone number(s). Names must appear as listed on vehicle registration.

Fill in legal Colorado address. This address is your registration address that is used to determine County of residence. If mailing address is different from the legal address fill in the mailing address. All correspondence is sent to the mailing address.

Step #2 – Select vehicle and by making an “X” in the box next to choice. Only one vehicle and may be chosen. Please refer to Vehicle Type, and Fees section for assistance in helping to make a choice.

Step #3 – Select plate type by making an “X” in the box next to choice. Only one plate type may be chosen. Please refer to Plate Type and Fees section.

Step #4 – Indicate your choices (up to six). All choices must have a definition, explanation or meaning associated with it. Any choices that are missing an explanation or are too vague will not be considered. Please refer to The Personalization Standards section for assistance.

Step #5 – Sign and date application.

Vehicle Type

Vehicle type can be determined by looking at the vehicle registration and/or title. Certain vehicle types require special consideration and/or registrations before personalized plates can be issued. Please contact your County Motor Vehicle Office with any questions on vehicle types.

Plate Type

Regular – Regular plates are the standard plates commonly referred to as the green and white plates.

Designer – Designer plates are manufactured with a special graphic (scenic purple mountains) on the background of the plate. Please refer to Fees under this section.

Group Special – Group Special plates are authorized to be issued to a group of people who have a common interest or affinity. In addition to fees, some Group Special license plates require authorization from their corresponding sponsoring organization prior to the plate being issued. Please visit DMV.Colorado.gov for specific details on individual Group Special license plates. All Group Special personalized plate applications must be accompanied by the original certificate or pin (if applicable). Any application that does not have the certificate or pin (if required) will be rejected.

Alumni – Alumni plates are authorized to be issued to an alumni association for a private or public college or university located within Colorado. In addition to regular taxes and fees some Alumni license plates require authorization from their corresponding college or university prior to the plate being issued. Please visit DMV.Colorado.gov for specific detail on individual Alumni license plates. All Alumni personalized plate applications must be accompanied by the original certificate or pin issued by the college/university (if applicable). Any application that does not have the certificate or pin (if required) will be rejected.

Street Rod – Street Rod plates can only be issued to vehicles manufactured in 1948 or prior with a body design that has been modified for safe road use.

Call Letter – Call Letter plates are issued to vehicles where the owner is licensed by the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) to operate an amateur radio, standard radio, FM, television, or modification license.

A copy of the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) license must accompany this application.

Collector – Collector plates can only be issued:

- (a) Vehicles with a model year of 1975 or older
- (b) Vehicles with a model year of 1976 or later that were registered with a 5 year collector series license plate prior to September 1, 2009 and is currently registered with the collector series plate
- (c) A model year at least thirty-two years old; except that, if the vehicle is being registered in the program area, as defined in section 42-4-304:
 - (I) The vehicle must have passed an emissions test meeting the standards of part 3 of article 4 of this title within the last twelve months before being initially registered by the owner as a collector's item; and
 - (II) The owner must sign an affidavit that the vehicle will not be driven on roadways for more than four thousand five hundred miles per year. C.R.S 42-12-101 (2)

Fees

In addition to taxes and fees assessed by your County Motor Vehicle Office the fees listed at DMV.Colorado.gov will be collected upon approval of the personalized license plate. No refunds will be issued. The Department will not honor a change of choice or spacing or a request for refund after payment has been received.

Reservation of Previously Registered Personalized License Plates:

Per C.R.S. 42-3-211(9) A person who has been issued personalized license plates may retain the unique combination of letters or number of such plate, notwithstanding that the person no longer has a registered motor vehicle, if the person files a DR 2232 with the Department along with the appropriate fees listed.

Personalization Standards

The Department may refuse to issue any combination of letters or numbers that carry connotations offensive to good taste and decency, are misleading, or duplicate any other license plate. C.R.S. 42-3-211(5)

The only characters allowed on personalized plates are:

- English alphabet (upper case only)
- English numbers (excluding zero*)
- Blank spaces
- Dashes
- Periods

Only seven characters are allowed (six for motorcycle) to include blank spaces, dashes and periods. The minimum amount of characters allowed are:

- Five for plates with numbers only
- Two for any other plate (all letters or combinations of letters and numbers)

Spaces, dashes, and periods count as a character. However, they do not change the configuration. Example: If ABC is taken, then A B C, A-B-C, and A.B.C. are also taken.

The following combinations are Not allowed:

- 3 alpha, up to 4 numeric (AAA1234)
- Up to 5 numeric, 2 alpha (12345AA)
- 1 alpha, up to 6 numeric (A123456)
- 2 alpha, 2 numeric, 2 alpha (AA12AA)
- 2 numeric, 2 alpha, 3 numeric (12AA123)
- 1 alpha, up to 4 numeric, 1 alpha (A1234A)
- 1 numeric, 2 alpha, up to 4 numeric (1AA1234)
- Up to 5 numeric, 1 alpha, 1 numeric (12345A1)
- Up to 4 numeric, 2 alpha, 1 numeric (1234AA1)
- 1 alpha, 1 numeric, 1 alpha, 4 numeric (A1A1234)
- 2 numeric, 1 alpha, 2 numeric (12A12)

- Up to 6 numeric, 1 alpha (123456A)
- Up to 3 numeric, 3 alpha (123AAA)
- 3 alpha, up to 3 numeric (AAA123)
- 2 alpha up to 4 numeric (AA1234)
- 4 alpha, and 2 numeric (AAAA12)

All emblems and/or logos will be removed from any personalized plate regardless of the number of characters allowed.

The number zero (0) may be used for Call Letter plates only and the remanufacture of either 2/4 plates or other serialized plates as permitted by Statute.

Completed Applications

Most personalized license plate applications can be submitted online at DMV.Colorado.gov. However, some must be done in person at your county motor vehicle office. For example, FCC plates.

If you move before you receive the license plates, please provide your new address to your county motor vehicle office. Failure to do so may cause delay or loss of your personalized license plates.

The renewal fee for subsequent years (see Fees) will be included on your renewal notice from your County Clerk. The fee to renew or transfer personalized plates will be assessed by your local County Motor Vehicle Office.

Rejected Applications

In the event a request is denied, a letter will be issued to the applicant explaining the reason for denial. Options to appeal are included within the letter.
