

Interested in getting your Commercial Driver License?

Starting Feb. 7, 2022, Entry Level Driver Training (ELDT) will be required to receive a Class A or Class B driver license. Flip this postcard for details.

COMMERCIAL DRIVER LICENSE

THE ROAD TO SUCCESS STARTS WITH

ELDT

Entry Level Driver Training

What is ELDT?

Entry Level Driver Training is a comprehensive training course to improve safety and awareness. Training includes both classroom instruction and behind-the-wheel training.

Who must take ELDT?

Anyone who is applying for a Class A or Class B Commercial Driver License for the first time, wants to upgrade their license, or wants a passenger, school bus or hazardous materials endorsement.

Where can I find a commercial driving school?

The National Training Provider Registry has an approved list of instructors and schools, scan the QR code to find an instructor or school in your area.

COLORADO
Department of Revenue
Division of Motor Vehicles

For more information, visit tpr.fmcsa.dot.gov/